Fading

3M Window Films are designed to reduce the harmful effects of the sun and the three major causes of fading. 3M Window Films reduce solar heat and visible light on your furnishings and will block up to 99% of the sun's harmful ultraviolet rays, the single largest cause of fading. Based upon how each film addresses these three main causes, the level of protection varies slightly from film to film. While window film can dramatically slow the progress of fading, no window film can stop fading completely.

Safety & Security Film

3M™ Safety & Security Window Films are designed to help hold the glass together during violent weather, attempted break-ins or bomb blasts. This helps protect furnishings or inhabitants from potential flying glass. Adding professionally installed 3M attachment system, such as the 3M™ Impact Protection Adhesive, or Profile bonds the glass and film to the window frame. This added level of protection helps prevent the entire sheet of glass from falling into the structure during these severe events. While window film and attachment systems can provide significantly increased protection for a home or business, they cannot protect against all events. Not all safety and security films are suitable for all events, make sure to choose the correct film for your application.
